Hilton Announces Appointment of Juan Gonzalez Izquierdo as General Manager of Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal

A seasoned global hospitality professional, Izquierdo brings over twenty years of industry experience to the reimagined beachfront haven

LOS CABOS, MEXICO and MCLEAN, Va – (October 22, 2025) – Today, Hilton announces the appointment of Juan Gonzalez Izquierdo as general manager of the award-winning Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal. With a career spanning two decades of luxury hospitality experience, Izquierdo aims to leverage his unique and extensive expertise to build upon the resort's legacy and guide Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal forward following the recent multi-year property-wide transformation.

"We are pleased to welcome Juan Gonzalez Izquierdo as general manager of Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal," said Valeria Nowotny, vice president of operations, Caribbean and Latin America, Hilton. "With a deep appreciation for the resort's history and a visionary approach to luxury hospitality, Juan is uniquely positioned to lead one of our most iconic resorts to its next era."

"I am thrilled to be part of this exciting new chapter for Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal, evolving the resort's storied legacy and welcoming our guests back to a newly reimagined property that truly defines luxury," said Izquierdo. "Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal is the very essence of what inspired my career in luxury hospitality. Through my leadership, I look forward to enhancing the guest experience and fostering a culture of excellence that celebrates the renovated Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal."

Most recently, Izquierdo was the general manager of Waldorf Astoria Atlanta Buckhead, where he achieved the No. 1 spot for guest satisfaction in North America, as well as a Forbes Four-Star rating, for three consecutive years. He successfully oversaw the comprehensive renovation of public and private spaces and was instrumental in elevating the property's market positioning. Previously, as hotel manager at Conrad New York Downtown, Izquierdo helped his team achieve the top guest satisfaction ranking among luxury properties in North America, earn their first Connie Award, and receive Forbes Four-Star recognition. Izquierdo also held leadership roles as director of operations at luxury properties in New York, Barcelona, and London. He began his career as a busboy in London and has since remained in the luxury hospitality industry, driven by his passion for the field.

Izquierdo holds a bachelor's degree in hospitality management from Endicott College in Massachusetts and a diploma in hotel management from Les Roches Swiss Hotel Management School in Marbella, Spain.

Born and raised in Malaga, Spain, and fluent in Spanish and English, Izquierdo is a passionate Real Madrid fan and enjoys playing soccer and pickleball with friends, his four children, and his wife. An advocate for professional growth, he considers his greatest achievement the success of the team members he has mentored and seen promoted. Izquierdo looks forward to fostering a culture of excellence and accountability across all aspects of Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal.

This year Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal has been recognized in prestigious travel awards such as #1 Best Resort in Western Mexico by Condé Nast Traveler 2025 Readers' Choice Awards, Two MICHELIN Key rating, and 2025 T+L 500 list, among others.
