WOMEN'S DAY WEEKEND AT PEDREGAL

Join us for a weekend honoring the spirit, artistry, and strength of women—through local creativity, thoughtful rituals of wellbeing, and celebratory culinary moments. From a pop-up exhibition featuring inspiring female artists to seaside movement and a festive brunch, experience International Women's Day in true Pedregal style.

SATURDAY, MARCH 7 AND
SUNDAY, MARCH 8, 2026

HER PERSPECTIVE: ART FROM LOS CABOS & BEYOND

In honor of International Women's Day, step into a curated pop-up showcase celebrating women artists who translate Baja's beauty into bold form. Discover contemporary illustration, abstract atmospheres, mixed-media textures, and empowering visual narratives—each piece inviting you to pause, feel, and connect with the creative spirit of Los Cabos and beyond.

FEATURED ARTISTS:

CINTHYA NAVARRO

The paintings on view depict the chromatic wealth of Baja's Landscapes, flora, fauna, and human inhabitants, which the artist knows intimately. Embracing her roots, her vibrant, colorful artworks transport viewers to profound feelings and perceptions, conveying a strong sense of emotion and wonder.

FEATURED ARTISTS:

ALELI ART

Contemporary gouache and watercolor illustrations inspired by Baja's flora and fauna—where local nature becomes color-rich, modern storytelling.

AURORA COVARRUBIAS

Vibrant mixed-technique pieces centered on feminine empowerment and sensuality—rich color, texture, and presence that celebrate self-expression.

LINDA LIEFFERS

Abstract works in acrylics and oils exploring movement, light, and atmosphere—softly powerful compositions that feel like a horizon in motion.

SASHA IVANESEI

Mixed-media creations blending watercolor and acrylic with collage and textiles—Romanian artistry inspired by Mexican culture and Baja seascapes.

TANYA TALAMANTE

A multidisciplinary voice whose work is also featured in select Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal guest rooms—layered, intimate, and deeply place-driven.

Time: All Day
Location: Almartre Plaza
