SEASON'S GREETINGS FROM BAJA

Trade winter for golden sunsets and merry celebrations where the desert meets the sea. At Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal, cherished holiday traditions take on a distinctly Baja feel—filled with ocean breezes, festive flavors, and moments made for gathering.

From blissful Christmas days to sparkling New Year's Eve soirées, the month unfolds in a rhythm of cheers & cheer. Whether you're raising a glass with loved ones, watching year-end lights sparkle along the Pacific, or creating new family memories in paradise, every day brings good tide-ings of comfort and joy.

FESTIVE FUN FOR KIDS & TEENS

A holiday program designed for curious minds and active spirits, where every moment brings a new way to explore and connect. While little ones and teens dive into memorable experiences, parents can bask in well-earned time to unwind.

From casting lines along the shore, to spirited volleyball matches, and friendly rallies on the pickleball and tennis courts, days are filled with movement, laughter, and discovery by the sea.

A CHRISTMAS DAY TO REMEMBER

Santa's Grand Entrance

Christmas morning feels a little more enchanting in Pedregal. Deck the halls as Santa Claus makes his way through Mexico's only private resort tunnel, welcomed by the sounds of carols. Little ones gather for moments of pure excitement, filled with surprises and a lively lobby piñata. As the morning unfolds, the celebration continues with a festive fiesta at the Beach Club.

| Lobby | 11:00 am

A CHRISTMAS LUNCH BY THE PACIFIC

Set against the calm rhythm of the Pacific Ocean, Christmas afternoon at the Beach Club becomes a relaxed ritual in paradise. Enjoy a holiday-inspired buffet that brings together holly jolly favorites and fresh local dishes in an inviting, comfortable setting. With tunes in the air and the ocean as your backdrop, it's an occasion of togetherness where Noël unfolds gently, beautifully, by the water's edge.
